

Chasing Daylight

Mikky Ekko

Everybody slip
But why do I feel
Like I'm so out of touch with myself
Waitin' for a hit
Pick me up, pull me down
Say it all under my breath

Guess I should know better
Than to question right and wrong
But better goin' up in flames
Than bein' dragged along

'Cause I, I always end up chasin', chasin' daylight
I, I always end up chasin', chasin'... chasin' daylight
Good to be back on my own
Restless when I'm alone, when I'm alone
Pullin', pushin' red lights
Whoa I, I always end up chasin', chasin' daylight

Mama said it's treason
Yeah it's a fine line
Between livin' in heaven and hell
But how can I believe when Everything that I want
Belongs to somebody else

Guess I should know better
Than to question right and wrong
But better goin' up in flames
Than bein' dragged along

'Cause I, I always end up chasin', chasin' daylight
I, I always end up chasin', chasin'... chasin' daylight
Good to be back on my own
Restless when I'm alone, when I'm alone
Pullin', pushin' red lights
Whoa I, I always end up chasin', chasin' daylight

'Cause I, I always end up chasin', chasin' daylight
I, I always end up chasin', chasin'... chasin' daylight
Good to be back on my own
Restless when I'm alone, when I'm alone
Pullin', pushin' red lights
Whoa I, I always end up chasin', chasin' daylight

I always end up chasin', chasin'... chasin' daylight...

I always end up chasin', chasin'... chasin' daylight
Good to be back on my own
Restless when I'm alone, when I'm alone
Pullin', pushin' red lights
Whoa I, I always end up chasin', chasin' daylight
