

Come Reckless

Mikky Ekko

We come reckless as the sun
Like the waters never saw
Like a seed in the rough
But you love
You love to make the diamonds come out
I won't be the one who shakes you up
I won't be the one who lets your heart break
Come reckless
That's a good job, man
That's a good job, man

Well the summers last, the days beckon
You keep to yourself
Well the lies only wait for the morn
It's a sad, sad state of affairs
I won't be the one who shakes you up
I won't be the one who lets your heart break
Come reckless
That's a good job, man
That's a good job, man
Come reckless, oh
Come reckless, oh
Come reckless, no

Reckless

I won't be the one who shakes you up
I won't be the one who lets your heart break
Come reckless
That's a good job, man
That's a good job, man
