

Do As You're Told

Mikky Ekko

Do as you're told
What a gift, what a sight to behold
For the darkest of dreams
You'll surrender to sleep
Do as you're told
As the fire surrenders to cold
Heavy hearts sing deep
And surrender to me
Oh yes, you do as you're told

Do as you're told
Oh my dear, let the monster inside
Take control, it's alright
Leave the whole world behind
Absence of light
Bringing all of your fears to life
You've got nowhere to hide
Oh, my dear you'll be fine
Long as you do as you're told
Long as you do as you're told
