

FAME

Mikky Ekko

Guess I got a real bad habit
Of killing 'em all for the taste
It's a love so savage
Where all of your prayers go to waste
Take me by the hand
Take me by the hand
Let me lead you on it
To the pearly gates
So, I know, I know
You better than that
But you learned to kill
The ones that hold you back

Oh what a beautiful world it is
Oh so young and innocent
And they're all crying out your name
Hallelujah
Fame

So hold me now, but not too close
And tell me just what hurts the most
Oh I know, I know
You better than that
But you learned to kill
The ones that hold you back

Oh what a beautiful world it is
Oh so young and innocent
They're all crying out your name
Hallelujah

One by one hear me say goodbye
A smoking gun in a sacred light
I'll be the one who drags you down
To the sound of Hallelujah
Hallelujah
Fame
Hallelujah
Fame
