

Hey Rose

Mikolas Josef

(Yeah)
(I don't wanna lose control)

I think I'm almost at my last dollar
Hope nobody tells my mother
Cause I've been trying to keep it covered up
(Yeah)
(I don't wanna lose control)

I think I finally hit my rock bottom
Should probably go and tell my father I
I killed my genie with a bottle
(I don't wanna lose so)

So tell me how to do this thing right
If only I could try one more time
Oh yeah

Hey Rose
Every night by the fire, when I played your favorite song
And all our friends would sing along
(Yeah)
And I hope
If I called, you would still be the girl I used to know
Can I stop by, maybe say hello?

Cause I'm coming home
Yeah I'm coming home

(Yeah)
Every time I lose a fight
Imma get into another
Guess I like when it's life
Without a bullet cover
Setting my body on fire
So that my heart isn't cold
Oh
Do I need somebody
Not just some body
To know what its like, when you love somebody yeah
Am I in love with the feeling when I'm out of control?
(Yeah)

(I don't wanna lose so)

So tell me how to do this thing right
If only I could try one more time
Oh yeah

Hey rose
Every night by the fire, when I played your favorite song
And all our friends would sing along
Oh yeah
And I hope
If I called you would still be the girl I used to know
Can I stop by, maybe say hello?

Cause I'm coming home
Yeah I'm coming home
Yeah I'm coming home
Yeah I'm coming
(Home)
