Baby what's your name what's your number
Spanish by me straight out of Columbia
Said she's only staying for the summer
I'ma make you wanna stay for longer
Because I know what you came to do
And you should know I came for you
And girl this bed was made for two
Yea made for two
Just me and you
So whats the plan baby tell me whats the hold up
Know you bad I don't want no mediocre
Tell your friends that tonight you staying over
Got some things I can teach you I can show ya
Want you to myself
Don't need no one else
Take off that dress here's
You gon love how it feels

Baby turn the lights down
What you wanna do?
No pressure I respect that
You ain't like the rest
Can't nobody do better

Ahahah, with a face and body like that
With a smile so pretty and bright
Balloon booty go ahead and pop-pop-pop, pop-pop-pop
Hit that spot, street smile and beauty to match
Eyebrows on fleek and I-I-I can't get enough of ya-ah-ah, ya-ah-ah

She has a brain and a body
But I'm gonna have to wait for her
And I don't mind (and I don't mind)
She's got my back like nobody
But still I gotta wait for her
And I don't mind
No, I don't mind

I can be a bad bad girl
When you need me to babe
And a lady in the streets
Then I know how to give it to you, till you go crazy
I can be your favourite fantasy
Bet you never met a girl like me
Said you like em with intelligence
Baby, that's a given it's irrelevant
I'm here to let you know, I'm here to let you know
I see you, you see me we starting to flame
My body and brains got you screaming my name
I got that fire that makes you addicted, you gotta call em Kurt Cobain

Gonna do whatever cause this girls on fire

But I don't mind, I don't mind
And you, you should be happy that you got Someone that is down for you

She has a brain and a body
But I'm gonna have to wait for her
And I don't mind (and I don't mind)
She's got my back like nobody
But still I gotta wait for her
And I don't mind
No, I don't mind
