There must be something in this liquor
I've never seen it anymore clearer
This shit could never get any deeper
My man the boss, but you a keeper

Every night before I lay, the only one I want is you
But the one that's laying here beside me is a little more short and cute
But if it's anybody that's next up it's you
But if it's anybody that's next up it's you

There must be something in this liquor
I've never seen it anymore clearer
This shit could never get any deeper
My man the boss, but you a keeper
You next up, you next up, you next up
You next up, you next up, you next up, baby
You next up, you next up, you next up
You next up, you next up, you next up, baby

There must be something in this liquor
I feel my feelings getting deeper, damn
And I know you feel it too now
Oh, I just wanna be with you now

Every night before I lay, the only one I want is you
But the one that's laying here beside me is a little more short and cute
But if it's anybody that's next up it's you
But if it's anybody that's next up it's you

There must be something in this liquor
I've never seen it anymore clearer
This shit could never get any deeper
My man the boss, but you a keeper
You next up, you next up, you next up
You next up, you next up, you next up, baby
You next up, you next up, you next up
You next up, you next up, you next up, baby
There must be something in this liquor
I've never seen it anymore clearer
This shit could never get any deeper
My man the boss, but you a keeper
You next up, you next up, you next up
You next up, you next up, you next up, baby
You next up, you next up, you next up
You next up, you next up, you next up, baby
