

Something Happened

Mila J

I'm just a girl in a [?] fishbowl, no chances
You can't see what I'm thinkin' about
I'll be transparent, see there's some things you don't know
There's a reason I'm cold, and I don't want you to know

Everything happens for a reason
It goes the way it goes
I know you need your reason
It's time I let you know

I been hurt, oh, I been hurt, yeah
Something happened and it hurt bad
Never told no-one, never said nothin'
Something happened, never said nothin'

I'm just a girl in the same 24-hour game
That we all fall victim to playin'
So I'll be transparent, when I say
That I didn't choose to be this way
Never wanted to get to this place
Where I can't explain but I had to say

Everything happens for a reason
It goes the way it goes
I know you need your reason
It's time I let you know

I been hurt, oh, I been hurt, yeah
Something happened and it hurt bad
Never told no-one, never said nothin'
Something happened, never said nothin'

(I been hurt, oh, I been hurt, yeah
Something happened, it hurt bad
Never told no-one, never said nothin'
Something happened, never said nothin')
