Love is good, love is bad
But it's always on time
I'm looking here, looking there
Why is love so hard to find?
I'm thinking "better luck tomorrow"
But I know [?] the days are just fine
I guess I'd rather keep my word
And say goodbye
Even if it's a lie
I'll wave goodbye
And I'll make you think I, say goodbye
Just like, goodbye...

You know how I love to be right
