

You And Only You

Mila Mason

Who was I dreaming of this morning
Who has that sweet and gentle touch
Who is the boy I can't get off my mind
Who am I wanting so much
I ask myself could this be true
Could it be love that's breaking through
What's the reason I feel like I do

You and only you
You and only you

Who makes my heart beat faster
Who feels so good here in my arms
Who is the boy I'm so crazy about
Who's shown me all his hidden charms

And who has got me mesmerized
Each time I look into his eyes
Who has got me hooked on his love too

You and only you
You and only you

You and only you
You and only you

Who's gonna love me more tomorrow
With love that's stronger than today
Who can I trust with this old heart of mine
Who is this boy I want to stay

You and only you
You and only you

You and only you
You and only you
You and only you
