Don't Make It Easy

MILCK

I had a hunger, big empty space
I wanted love but I hid away
A Gemini mind all over the place
That was the way, that was the way
Then you, came through

Just like a mood ring, you could read me
Days I was charming, days I was mean
You never flinched, you let me be
I was free, I was free
'Cause you, you knew me

Breaking up's supposed to be the hardest thing to do
The more you're sympathetic, the more I'm getting confused
Breaking ups supposed to be the hardest thing to do
The hardest thing to do

Please don't make it easy
Just this time, don't be kind
Hate me 'cause I'm leavin'
Even if you have to lie

Half of a home stacked up in boxes
All of my clothes, some of your socks
You stay home from work to pack up my car
My new apartment's pretty far
But you came through

I wanna scream and turn this around
You were the best thing I've ever found
But we gotta do this at least for now
You helped me move my shit across town
You, that's what you do

Please don't make it easy
Just this time, don't be kind
Hate me 'cause I'm leavin'
Even if you have to lie
'Cause breaking up's supposed to be the hardest thing to do
The more you're sympathetic, the more I'm getting confused
Don't make it easy
I need a sign that you're not right

Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh

You always made it easy
Just this time, twist the knife
I've never made it easy
I've never made it easy

Please don't make it easy
Just this time, don't be kind
Hate me 'cause I'm leavin'
Even if you have to lie
'Cause breaking up's supposed to be the hardest thing to do
The more you're sympathetic, the more I'm getting confused

Don't make it easy
I need a sign that you're not right
