

Power of the Heart

MILCK

First kiss of the sun
Shapes of light are flooding thru the window
You're slow to get in motion
Yet your mind could race straight into a wall

Oooh don't give up
You've already come this far

Get up now
Get up
Though you got stones upon your chest
Your pain is not all that you are
So get up now
Get up
When times are heavy on the head
Don't you forget
There's still the power of the heart
Ooh

You're hiding in your bed
Got hypnotized by the ballad of the blues
So let me be your friend
Your heart's a compass that'll lead you thru
What you'd say to me I say to you

Get up now
Get up
Though you got stones upon your chest
Your pain is not all that you are
So get up now
Get up
When times are heavy on the head
Don't you forget
There's still the power of the heart
Ooh

The heart will dream
The heart believes
The heart still sees as a child sees
The heart forgives
And understands
Tries and tries
And tries again

It's not time to give up
It's time to get up
This pain won't last forever
If you

It's far from time to give in or give up my love
It's time to get up
It's far from time to give in or give up my love
It's time to get up

Get up now
Get up
We are all trynna do our best

Our pain is not all that we are
Let's get up now
Get up
When hope is heavy on the head
Don't you forget
There's still the power of the heart

There's still the power of the Heart
Power
Power of the heart
