Undercover

MILCK

No more undercover
No more "will I hide?"
No more chasin' numbers
No more scripted lies

I'm gonna tell you who I am now
I'm gonna let the shine come on
I'm gonna let you see my target heart
The scars that lie across

I feel like I'm living someone else's life
A constant pretending
I need to be liked by the ones that I love

It's all I ever wanted
To let down my guard
Be out in the open
Don't have to try so hard

It's all I ever wanted
To let down my guard
Be out in the open
Don't have to try so hard

The world makes me a number
The world wants me to fit
Into pretty little boxes
Well, I'm not doin' it

I feel like I'm living someone else's life
A constant pretending
I need to be liked by everyone

It's all I ever wanted (all I ever wanted)
To let down my guard (let down)
Be out in the open (be out in the open)
Don't have to try so hard (try so hard)

It's all I ever wanted (all I ever wanted)
To let down my guard (let down)
Be out in the open (be out in the open)
Don't have to try so hard (try so hard)

It's all I ever wanted (wanted)
To let down my guard
Be out in the open
Don't have to try so hard
