Mild Orange

Going back to the way we knew
We never really knew that you knew how
Well I'm sure that you felt before
And you never really had the doubt
That I hold a place in your heart
You solved the special place in my arms

I roll deep - like the ocean
No hurry, no fuss, no commotion
My love, my devotion
Rolls deep like the ocean
Rolls deep like the ocean
The funk-jazz style kinda motion
Rip, split, splatter
I look at her
Feelings scattered
Offered on a platter
Chit-chatter
Forget the latter
In the end, does it even matter?
