

This Kinda Day

Mild Orange

Keep moving to the out-lies of your head
Like an ocean so often in change

Yeah, it's this kinda day for a long kinda night
Yeah, it's this kinda day for a long kinda night
Let it get away
Let's get away

'Cause I can tell there's something wrong
Usually it's not like this
All these things inside of our heads
Are okay, this moment too
Will all make sense someday

Keep your eye on the horizon always
Don't leave it so late, okay? Open

'Cause I can tell there's something wrong
And usually it's not like this
All these things inside of our heads
Are okay, this moment too
Will all pass someday
It's not like you're always like this
Remember how it felt moving forward
But for now, this moment too
Will all make sense someday

Yeah, it's this kinda day for a long kinda night
Yeah, it's this kinda day for a long kinda night
Let it get away
Let's get away

'Cause I can tell there's something wrong
Usually it's not like this
All these things inside of our heads
Are okay, this moment too
Will all make sense someday
It's not like you're always like this
Remember how it felt moving forward
But for now, this moment too
Will all make sense someday

It's not like you're always like this
Remember how it felt moving forward
But for now, this moment too
Will all make sense someday
