

Adios Ta-ra Ta-ra

Miles Kane

Psycho killer
I saw you checking your reflection
Feng shui thriller
As you looked into my eyes
Psycho killer
I was doomed right from the start man
Feng shui thriller
The moment that you rolled the dice

You, you've got the world all in your hands
You and your emotions moving lands
Holding on we're banging heads again
Adios ta-ra ta-ra my friend

I planted the seed, it's growing in me
Electricity running through my bones
I'm right and I'm wrong, I'm off and I'm on
The tears that I cried blaming the whole world

Scratching leather
I'm your loosey-goosey baby
Dance floor killer
I'm your favourite one-man band
Scratching leather
You know no guru is gonna save
Dance floor killer
So don't you let it get you down

You, you've got the world all in your hands
You and your emotions moving lands
Holding on we're banging heads again
Adios ta-ra ta-ra my friend

I planted the seed, it's growing in me
Electricity running through my bones
I'm right and I'm wrong, I'm off and I'm on
The tears that I cried blaming the whole world
I'm young and I'm old, I'm hot and I'm cold
I'm lost in between, I wonder where it leads
I'm wrong and I'm right, the day and the night
I'm counting the stars, watch me as I go

As I go, as I go, as I go, as I go
