What do I have to do To get you where I want you

I'll guess we'll see What might be, whoa

You're a million miles
A million miles away
So come closer
So come closer
So come closer
Whoa, whoa

You're reasons, don't make any sense I'll never rely on you And you're draped on him While you're staring at me Whoa, whoa

You're a million miles
A million miles away
So come closer
So come closer
So come closer
Whoa, ahh, ah

You're a million miles A million miles away So come closer So come closer Whoa, ahh, ah
