

Scared Of Love

Miles Kane

Look at the ceiling, am I dreaming?
Lying on my bedroom floor
Every morning I get this feeling
It's like I've seen it all before

I said I'm sorry
But I know that's not enough
You said, "Don't worry
I know that you're scared of love"
I'm scared of love

I lose my focus when I get closest
So the words don't come out right
A grand illusion or just confusion
Either way, I'm lost tonight

I said I'm sorry
But I know that's not enough
You said, "Don't worry
I know that you're scared of love"
I'm scared of love

I used to think it was all a game
And all the rules were there to break
But now it seems the rules have changed
There's no one left but me to blame
Do I cry in vain?

I said I'm sorry
But I know that's not enough
You said, "Don't worry
I know that you're scared of love"
I'm scared of love
