

See Ya When I See Ya

Miles Kane

You're walking around, your head in the clouds
You're acting as if you're Mr. Johnny know-it-all
Mister come and watch me fall

You're feeling alive, a Jekyll and Hyde
You're riding the tides and everybody is just doing fine
Leading that double life

I'll be right here, I'll see ya when I see ya
I'll wait right here, I'll see ya when I see ya

I hope, I'll see ya when I see ya
I hope, I'll see ya when I see ya

You're dancing with death in a bulletproof vest
There is no way to say it, brother
Better watch your step
Before all goes west

The king and the queen, the milk in your tea
The partner in crime you only ever found once in life
Don't let it pass you by

I'll be right here, I'll see ya when I see ya
I'll be right here, I'll see ya when I see ya
I'll see ya when I see ya

I put myself on mute before I spill the beans
Oh, not again
'Cause when you're dancing to your own beat
You can be anything that you want
'Cause I'm an executive that you can trust

I'll wait right here, I'll see ya when I see ya
I'll be right here, I'll see ya when I see ya

I'll be right here, I'll see ya when I see ya
I'll be right here, I'll see ya when I see ya
I'll see ya when I see ya

I wouldn't wanna be ya, I'll see ya when I see ya
