

The Wonder

Miles Kane

I wanna feel the wonder of you

Talking to myself at night, drink till the sunrise
You could drown me in those eyes, it was paradise
Summer comes, replay the scenes, frequently deceived
Rose-tinted fantasies deep inside of me

I wanna feel the wonder of you
Let's make a deal, I'll give you some truth
It gets me high

Sleeping on my wishing list, momentary bliss
Sinks me like a battleship, you've come to take the win
Suddenly I see your face leading me astray
Secretly I contemplate resigning to my fate

I wanna feel the wonder of you
Let's make a deal, I'll give you some truth
It gets me high

This time it's never-ending
Hold back the fear
Your touch so ever-tempting
I'll keep you near

Rest your soul on me, I missed your bones honey
It's taking its toll on me
Rest your soul on me, I missed your bones honey
It's taking its toll on me (the wonder of you)
Rest your soul on me, I missed your bones honey
It's taking its toll on me (the wonder of you)
Rest your soul on me, I missed your bones honey
It's taking its toll on me (the wonder of you)
