Miley Cyrus

I was sitting on a wooden stool
In a barbecue joint in Tennessee
When this ole boy walked in
And he sat right down next to me
I could tell he'd been through some hard times
There were tear stains on his old shirt
And he said you wanna know what you get
When you play a country song backwards

You get your house back
You get your dog back
You get your best friend Jackson back
You get your truck back
You get your hair back
Ya get your first and second wives back

Your front porch swing
going ding a ling ling ling
Your bling bling bling and a diamond ring
Your get your farm and the barn and the boat and the Harley that old black cat named Charlie

Sounds a little crazy, a little scattered and absurd
But that's what you get when you play a country song backwards

Well I never heard it said quite like that but It hit me in the face cause that's where I'm at I almost fell flat out on the floor
He said wait a minute that's not all theres even more

You get your mind back
you get your nerves back
Your achy breaky heart back

You get your pride back
You get your life back
You get your first real love back

You get your big screen TV, a DVD and a washing machine
You get the pond and the lawn
The bail and the mower
You go back where you don't know her

It sounds a little crazy a little scattered and absurd
But that's what you get
When you play a country song backwards
Oh play that song
Woo!!!

We sat there and shot the bull about how it would be
If we could rewind it all and go back in T. I. M. E.

You get your house back
You get your dog back
You get your best friend Jackson back

You get your truck back

You get your hair back
Ya get your first and second wives back

Your front porch swing
Goin ding a ling a ling
Your bling bling bling and a diamond ring
Your get your farm and the barn and the boat and the Harley
that old black cat named Charlie

You get your mind back
you get your nerves back
Your achy breaky heart back

You get your pride back
You get your life back
You get your first real love back

You get your big screen TV, a DVD and a washing machine
You get the pond and the lawn
The bail and the mower

You go back where you don't know her
It sounds a little crazy a little scattered and absurd
But that's what you get
When you play a country song backwards
