

Something Beautiful

Miley Cyrus

Tell me somethin' beautiful, yeah, tonight
Until your lips turn blue
Said I don't wanna talk about it for too long
Baby, now I think I do
Ah, water to red wine, kissin' to kill time
Oh my, yeah
Ah, watching the doves cry into the sunrise

Oh, flash, bang, spark
Send home the guards and lay down your arms
And da, da-da-da, da-da
The great golden bomb, bomb, bomb

Boy, I'm losin' my breath, yes
Boy, you're markin' up my necklace
Boy, I'm losin' my breath
I'm undressin', confessin' that I'm so obsessed, yes

Tell me somethin' beautiful, yeah, about this world
When I'm in your palm, I'm like a pearl
Tell me somethin' I can hold on to, you're who I belong to
I drown in devotion (Devotion) as deep as the ocean (The ocean)
So don't let me go, no, no, no

Flash, bang, spark
Lightin' up the dark
Bomb, bomb

Boy, I'm losin' my breath, yes
Boy, it's poppin' out my chest, yes
Boy, I'm losin' my breath
I'm undressin', confessin' that I'm so obsessed, yes

Eat my heart, break my soul
Take my parts, let me go
Eat my heart, break my soul
Take my parts, let me go
Eat my heart, break my soul
Take my parts
