

Thinkin'

Miley Cyrus

One, two, three, four

I don't know where you always go
Why you trying to keep it on the low?
I'm always like, "Where the hell you've been?"
You tell me that you've been hanging with your friends
Something seems just a little suss
We ain't got nothing, if there ain't no trust
I'm not sure, but I got a hunch
And now you've got me thinkin' way too much

I've been thinkin' way too much, much, much, much
You ain't been callin' me enough, 'nough, 'nough, 'nough
Now I'm longing for your touch, touch, touch, touch
I've been thinkin' way too much
I've been thinkin' way too much
You won't pick up the phone, phone, phone, phone
Now I'm sitting here alone, lone, lone, lone
Do you do this just for fun, fun, fun, fun
I've been thinkin' way too much
I've been thinkin' way too much

Oh yeah, all I do is think about you
Oh yeah, all I do is think about you
Oh yeah, all I do is think about you
Oh yeah, all I do is think about you

It's getting late, I'm starting to obsess
You got me cryin' and lookin' like a mess
My daddy said, "Stay away from such"
But now you got me thinkin' way too much

I've been thinkin' way too much, much, much, much
You ain't been callin' me enough, 'nough, 'nough, 'nough
Now I'm longing for your touch, touch, touch, touch
I've been thinkin' way too much
I've been thinkin' way too much
You won't pick up the phone, phone, phone, phone
Now I'm sitting here alone, lone, lone, lone
Do you do this just for fun, fun, fun, fun
I've been thinkin' way too much
I've been thinkin' way too much

Oh yeah, all I do is think about you
Oh yeah, all I do is think about you
Oh yeah, all I do is think about you
Oh yeah, all I do is think about you

All night, all I do is think about you
All night, all I do is think about you
All night, all I do is think about you
All night, all I do is think about you

All night, all I do is think about you
All night, all I do is think about you
All night, all I do is think about you
All night, all I do is think about you

I've been thinkin' way too much, much, much, much
You ain't been callin' me enough, 'nough, 'nough, 'nough
Now I'm longing for your touch, touch, touch, touch
I've been thinkin' way too much
I've been thinkin' way too much
You won't pick up the phone, phone, phone, phone
Now I'm sitting here alone, lone, lone, lone
Do you do this just for fun, fun, fun, fun
I've been thinkin' way too much
I've been thinkin' way too much

Oh yeah, all I do is think about you
Oh yeah, all I do is think about you
Oh yeah, all I do is think about you
Oh yeah, all I do is think about you
