

Classroom Dreamer

Mili

A glass of milk, slightly burned toast
Thanks for the meal
As usual, off I go

Chirping birds and sunshine
Are telling me, "Today will be different"
'Cause these years are my prime
Put on a happy face and I'll be fine

Angelic bells
Ding-dong-ding-dong
(Ding-dong-ding-dong)
(Ding-dong-ding-dong)

SIN COS TAN
A triangular thought dancing in powdered chalk
(Chalk chalk chalk chalk)
Let's draw a line
Circling the heart
(Circling the heart)
(Circling the heart)
(Circling the heart)
(Circling the heart)
(Circling the heart)
(Circling the heart)

With a fanfare my fiction starts
We are the stars
A beautiful affair

So in the daily episodes (So in the daily episodes)
Together, we're always the main characters
And this is our own show (And this is our own show)
Unleashing our super special powers
We'll fight against the evil
We'll make sure they can't hurt me anymore
We'll call ourselves the heroes
Welcome to my magical lonely world

I know it's just a dream
Can you make it my reality?
Can you make it my reality?
Can you make it my reality?
Can you make it my reality?
Can you make it my reality?

Every page I drew, every page I drew, I just wanted to be seen
(Please don't stop my evergoing dream)
Everyday I knew, everyday I knew, nothing comes easily
(Please don't stop my evergoing dream)
Everything I do, everything I do, are completely done for me
(Please don't stop my evergoing dream)
Why don't you tell me who, why don't you tell me who?
(Please don't stop my evergoing dream)
I already know who I am waiting for
