The earth
It's breasts
Like a child
You quiver
And you shutter
Wiping your tears
Onto my skin
You pushed down my wings
And cut it deep
Dig out my flesh
Swallowed it up in whole

You took me to heaven
Dropped me down again
Crunched me up into a donut
Swallowed it up in whole

I thought I would never forgive you
For all the things you have done
Look at me now
I don't feel a thing
Don't feel a thing but sympathy

So why don't you come
And bury me
And then just maybe
Time will turn me into your
