

No Good At Being You

Milk in the Microwave

Ehehaha!

Hello

Goodbye!

And thanks for stopping by

Please close the door, on your way out!

So you don't see me cry

It's my time, time to shine

Hope I don't forget my lines

'Cause when the world is crashing down, the script says I'm just fine!

I'm good, how are you?

It's nice to see you too

Why do this ritual we do?

When everyone knows it's not true?

I envy you

The things you do

The social norms I wish I knew

Oh, I'm sorry I'm no good at being you

See, I never auditioned for the role I was cast to play

But I can't show that I'm unprepared, or I'll be their feast to day!

So smile and wave, don't misbehave, and one day you'll walk out fine

Take a deep breath in, and then begin, just don't forget your lines!

Sore thumb

No fun!

We had a real good run

But now it seems our time is up!

They saw behind the curtain

Now the world knows all of me

The things I wish I wouldn't be

Oh, I'm sorry I'm no good at being you

(Wawawawa!)

Au revoir, my curtains' closed, I bid adieu!

(It's a wrap!)

(That ending's so silly, hahahaha!)
