

New beginning (In Your Arms)

Milk Inc.

I feel as if the earth stopped spinning
I feel like there's a new beginning
In your arms
In your arms, baby
Don't need a crystal ball to know
There's nowhere else I'd want to go
But in your arms
In your arms, baby

Too strong to fight, this feeling inside
Hide me in your arms tonight
Too strong to fight, this feeling is right
Hide me in your arms tonight

Too strong to fight, this feeling inside
Hide me in your arms tonight
Too strong to fight, this feeling is right
Hide me in your arms tonight

I can't keep my heart from yearning
Waiting for a sweet return
Into your arms
Into your arms, baby
If this world has got me blinded
Everything I need I'll find it
Into your arms
Into your arms, baby

Too strong to fight, this feeling inside
Hide me in your arms tonight
Too strong to fight, this feeling is right
Hide me in your arms tonight

When the world is swept away
And there's nothing left to say
Only one place I can hide
So hold me tight

When the world is swept away
Only one place I can hide
So hold me tight

In your arms
In your arms
In your arms
In your arms

Too strong to fight, this feeling inside
Hide me in your arms tonight
Too strong to fight, this feeling is right
Hide me in your arms tonight

Too strong to fight, this feeling inside
Hide me in your arms tonight
Too strong to fight, this feeling is right
Hide me in your arms tonight
