

Your Friend

Milk Inc.

Tryin to get out of your mind
Tryin to leave those things behind
Feels like you wanna run away
Why don't you?

Wanna get the weight off your back
One ease the strain on your neck
You're standing on the crossroad
Shouldn't you choose?

Now I can't help but feel what you've been through
Still your tears to me are no taboo
'Cause when you cry
It hurts me too

I can't say I've been in your shoes
But I would love to bring some good news
'Cause when you cry
It hurts me too

Now I can't help but feel what you've been through
Still your tears to me are no taboo
'Cause when you cry
It hurts me too

I can't say I've been in your shoes
But I would love to bring some good news
'Cause when you cry
It hurts me too

See I'm your friend when you feel alone.
I'm your friend when you need a home.
I'm your friend each and every day.
I'm your friend, all along the way.
I'm your friend when you don't know what to do.
I'm your friend and I will push you through,

I'm your friend,
I'm your friend,
I'm your friend,
Each and every day
I'm your friend.
All along the way
I'm your friend,
When you don't know what to do
I'm your friend,
I will push you through
I'm your friend!
