

Window

Milky Chance

Thoughts are passing by outside my window
Dreaming 'bout the things we missed to do
I don't really know but if you say so
Maybe we can handle all the loss

Thoughts are passing by outside my window
Thinking of the moments with you
Dreaming 'bout the things we missed to do

I'm feeling caught up tonight
Shadows on the ceiling
I'm feeling caught up tonight
Worried 'bout the leaning
I'm feeling caught up all the time
Like my love is on the line
I keep on going with a heavy heart

When I find myself without a feeling
Call me with an empty mood inside
Patiently I'm waiting for the healing
Every demon takes me on a ride

Thoughts are passing by outside my window
Thinking of the moments with you
Dreaming 'bout the things we missed to do

I'm feeling caught up tonight
Shadows on the ceiling
I'm feeling caught up tonight
Worried 'bout the leaning
I'm feeling caught up all the time
Like my love is on the line
I keep on going with a heavy heart

I'm feeling caught up tonight
I'm feeling caught up tonight
