

Afghan

Millencolin

Just like the children's sandpit
Just like the wild wild west
At random choose a target
It's not enough to be second best

So you wanna fight them
The weaker one is always wrong
Yeah now you wanna fight them
A real man's gotta show the world he's strong

Stuck up, abuse of powers
It's a part of a leader's role
"We only take what's ours"
A slick line to stay in control
Hate breeds more hate it's easy ot understand
To retaliate and to be a true macho man
Goes hand in hand

So show the world you're strong
The weaker one is wrong
And I know it won't take long
Until they're dead and gone
