Airhead

Millencolin

You think you're not cool cause you know every girl in town, bu t you don't do, cause when you're out at night they don't look your way, you've got all that trendy shit and a jolly air for brains and you are busy to watch out for that ugly girl you know.

You think girls like that will ruin your style, cause a perfect guy like you need something more you're so cool, you've got everything a girl desire, you're so cool, with a perfect but you can go far.

You're telling me that I am thinking way to small to understand that you have reached your goals and I am far away and all the things you say that you know I don't want to hear, so throw your empty words away and listen to what I say I'm not jealous in all the lies you tell, just take it easy, yo u might end up in hell, you're so perfect, you've got everything and you are way to coo l

to understand that you are out of line.
