

Disney Time

Millencolin

Puffin' again so happy with his friends he can dance even in his car straight guys should know whatever is on his mind he's got a reason for every season

Scared to be smart so far he's everything if you're laughing he is laughing too just don't let him begin 'cos in the end he'll win he's got a reason

Hole in his head you always tried to never be lied to now you understand that he's not your friend.
High class my ass you always tried to never be lied to now you understand that you have seek someone else what's wrong with someone overweight big surprise he's coming after you with a reason.

Dreamin' again but he's not asleep his eyes are open starin' at you reads your mind through his pipe and then he tells you what he's got a reason.

Impressive you guess he couldn't show you less but still you're snowbored like the funky bros life must go on and this is just a story I've got a reason...
