

Runaway Kind

Milo Greene

From the mouth is the meaning I just can't comply
But the more that I feel it I want but I can't

You want more than I want
You want long lasting love

But how can I be that for you
I'm the runaway kind
How can I be that for me
I'm not the one you want
How can I be that for you
I'm the runaway kind
How can I be that for me
I'm not the one you want

I've got miles of emotion with a heart that bends
And it's all within reason but nobody can win

You want more than I want
You want long lasting love

But how can I be that for you
I'm the runaway kind
How can I be that for me
I'm not the one you want
How can I be that for you
I'm the runaway kind
How can I be that for me
I'm not the one you want

How can I be that for you
I'm the runaway kind
How can I be that for me
I'm not the one you want
How can I be that for you
I'm the runaway kind
How can I be that for me
I'm not the one you want
I'm not the one you want
