

Slow

Milo Greene

There comes a time that we will get to the heart of what matters

Oh I wanna be clear now and tell you all that I'm thinking
'Cause it seems like the dream is gone and I'm down on luck
But you know I haven't lost hope and I want to look up

All alone on this one lane highway (wait up, wait up)
And I cant slow down (wait up, wait up)
In my heart there is a fear I run from (wait up, wait up)
And it's chasing me around
Still I cant slow down

Yeah I know that the past is gone and only a child holds on to it
I just can't seem to let it go and I need to move on
So tell me why I'm all in my head and I know I can move on
On my own

All alone on this one lane highway (tell me are you gonna wait up)
And I cant slow down (tell me are you gonna wait up, tell me are you gonna wait up)
In my heart there is a fear I run from (tell me are you gonna wait up)
And it's chasing me around (tell me are you gonna wait up, tell me are you gonna wait up)
I'm on my own

All alone on this one lane highway (tell me are you gonna wait up)
And I cant slow down (tell me are you gonna wait up, tell me are you gonna wait up)
In my heart there is a fear I run from (tell me are you gonna wait up)
And it's chasing me around (tell me are you gonna wait up)
Still I can't slow down

All these hands that keep time
They rise and fall the same way
Oh I can't look back now
