Take A Step

Milo Greene

Upon the throne
Is a garden's leaf
Is this the sigh
Of sweet relief
Don't dim the lights
No early gray
I'm all too soon
forget this place

Take a step
A step
A step into the sea
Take a step
A step
A step into the sea
Wash, your love
Your love
Your love all over me
Wash, your love
Your love
Your love all over me

Upon the door
Is an open latch
Our hearts will shake
But hands relax
The way you know it lights
The garden's leaf
It will take this sense
Of sweet relief

Take a step
A step
A step into the sea
Take a step
A step
A step into the sea
Wash, your love
Your love
Your love all over me
Wash, your love
Your love
Your love all over me

Soft has never felt so hard
Your face in front of me
Still I see we're getting closer to what is unseen.
So let down your guard
I'll knock down my guard
If I let down my guard
Then I
Then I
Then I

Take a step
A step

Take a step
A step
Oh
Wash your love
Your love
Your love all over me
Wash your love
Your love
Your love all over me
