Milo

We took turns eating cake that looked like a flag
And watched the fireworks and I swear I smelled the liars burn
Troubled aquarian doing equestrian things
And a hairy centaur involved in too many Ponzi schemes
Lay on the bathroom tile and think of Billy Mays
And how to make a girl smile in a myriad of silly ways
Listen to the Shins and learn how to sing the right notes
Dream of dorsal fins when manning all the lifeboats
Abandoned baggage in the carousel
I hear Paris is swell this time of year
I guess I'm kind of weird
Daydreaming of Logan's Run then recline a gear
I'm fine here (I'm fine here)
I have very soft skin and write young adult fiction like Gary Paulsen
I'm Frida Kahlo
Your Instagram is pics of pita chips and deer tallow
Condense a rap song into a question, then mutter it

(I wrote this song in green pen)

Eating brownies, I don't know why I'm frowning
It all happened before I could remember
(Pass the milk, pass the milk)

Run a BBW tumblr blog and forgot the password
I may be speaking too soon but this is a disaster
Like old people in modern sneakers
I saw a Book of Mormon with a congregation of true believers
I'm humbled eating lemon bars
I would never waste a daydream on seven cars
I have hella smarts and nudie parts that I never show
I think I'm a noticeably negro Euthyphro

Eating brownies, I don't know why I'm frowning
It all happened before I could remember
(Pass the milk, pass the milk)
(Alright, boy. There you go)

Hey, dude
You like this weird rap song?
It's me, KOOL A.D
The other fool on the weird rap song
A mellow number, 3 minutes, it doesn't last long
Some fools might tell you it's whack, but I think that that's wrong
Really, in fact, I think it's tight
That's right
Wrote this on a carcass of a lion by lamp light
That was a reference to another KOOL A.D. rap line
The last time I said "candle light" instead of "lamp light"
Get it?
So that's like about progress
I'm Michael Ondaatje kissing on your mom in a prom dress
Meaning like she's in a prom dress, not me
I guess, um, that was obvious probably
But shit, you never know
Fools cry over spilled milk and argue over whether a leather kilt is hetero
In my humble, I gotta say is probably just, um, better to let it go

I feel like Leonard Cohen
And I don't even know if I can name a Leonard Cohen track
Is Leonard Cohen wack?
That's rhetorical, you don't need to answer that I'm Dave Bowie, I mutter question raps for the answer, man
Like mice, I might turn butter to milk like "catch me if you can"
Chris Walken how I'm talking, kriss-krossing on your walkman
She sucking on a dick like it's a tall can
Pass the Four Loko
I'm a leader at last to my local folks, but still broke though
Fuck the Beatles, go Yoko
You know, bro?
