

I've Been Expecting You

Milow

I've been expecting you
The sound of your car on the drive
I sent you a message
I hope it got through
I've been expecting you

Weeks feel like years
Since the day you disappeared
But I left the door open quietly hoping
You'll find safe harbor here

The wind sings a wild melody
Through the pines and sycamore trees
Oh the stories they tell
Of old souls arriving and spirits surviving
Now yours is alive and well

I've been expecting you
Don't fuss just come as you are
I've made us some supper
Set a table for two
I've been expecting you

The wind sings a wild melody
Through the pines and sycamore trees
And oh the stories they tell
Of old souls arriving and spirits surviving
And yours is alive and well

I've been expecting you
The sound of your car on the drive
So welcome home do step inside
I've been expecting you
