

Halfway to the bottom
You, me and our problems
Stone cold when we let it slip away
Is it unfair to miss ya?
Is it unkind to hate ya?
To feel some kind of pleasure in the pain?

Wish I could skip ahead to somewhere near the end
And maybe then, I guess, I'll forget you ever left

Oh my!
Damn! This hurts so good
Always knew it would
Stop it if I could
Going on for 24/5
I still feel your touch
Never hurt so much
Haunted by your love
Going on for 24/5

I let you change me
But you were the one to break me
And buried all my feelings underneath
Maybe someday I won't miss ya
Maybe someday I won't hate ya
But right now it's too heavy to breathe

Wish I could skip ahead to somewhere near the end
And maybe then, I guess, I'll forget you ever left

Oh my!
Damn! This hurts so good
Always knew it would
Stop it if I could
Going on for 24/5
I still feel your touch
Never hurt so much
Haunted by your love
Going on for 24/5

Replays in my head
Of all the things you said
I know you're lying in somebody else's bed
Thought we could make it work
But then you hurt me first
Trust me, I felt it worse

Oh my!
Damn! This hurts so good
Always knew it would
Stop it if I could
Going on for 24/5
I still feel your touch
Never hurt so much
Haunted by your love
Going on for 24/5
