

Good Without

Mimi Webb

You nearly gave me a heart attack
When you said you're doing well
Is it obvious you're all I had
And the last year's been like hell
Guess I'm lonely thinking that you ain't moved on
And I'm sorry if I'm coming off too strong

Never thought I'd see the shape of pain
Standing in the front porch light
Is it obvious I'm not okay
Never meant to start a fight
Guess I'm just a moment living in your past
But I never thought you'd forget me so fast

'Cause I'm staring at all these photographs
I guess the good things ain't meant to last
I gave you forever you gave a month
I'm never falling for anyone
And now I'm looking at the ceiling
Wondering just what you're feeling now

If that's what love's about
Then I'm so good without
(Ooh)
I'm so good without
(Ooh)
I'm so good without
(Ooh)
I'm so good without
(Ooh)

I know you probably won't relate
I heard you met somebody new
Don't need no pity for pity's sake
You just do what you gotta do
Is it normal for the pain to grow from fear
Am I weak for thinking I wish you were here

'Cause I'm staring at all these photographs
I guess the good things ain't meant to last
I gave you forever you gave a month
I'm never falling for anyone
And now I'm looking at the ceiling
Wondering just what you're feeling now

If that's what love's about
Then I'm so good without
(Ooh)
I'm so good without
(Ooh)
I'm so good without
(Ooh)
I'm so good without
(Ooh)

(I'm so good without)
'Cause I'm staring at all these photographs

I guess the good things ain't meant to last
I gave you forever you gave a month
I'm never falling for anyone
And now I'm looking at the ceiling
Wondering just what you're feeling now

If that's what love's about
Then I'm so good without
