

I Met A Boy

Mimi Webb

I met a boy, he's just my type
I'm so annoyed, he said I might be the love of his life
He's got a girl, but acts like he's mine
I'm over boys that waste my time

I need a lover now to love me or not
I need a man who can love me a lot, oh
I need a lover now to love me or not
I need a man who can put me on top, oh
I need a lover that's down for the ride
Not a lover just down for the night, oh
I need a lover now to love me or not
Last time I saw one, I forgot

I met a boy, he's just my type
I'm so annoyed, he said I might be the love of his life
He's got a girl, but acts like he's mine
I'm over boys that waste my time

You're so immature, right from the jump
Baby, see, it won't be that easy
One, two, three, I got my own money
Playing these games
I'm not the one to be that stupid, thinking I'm clueless
'Cause

I met a boy, he's just my type (Type)
I'm so annoyed, he said I might be the love of his life
He's got a girl (He's got a girl) but acts like he's mine (Acts like he's mine)

Touching me only when no one's watching
2 a.m., when she sleeps, now you're talking
It's crazy how you don't see all the problem
Now you're just a story, I guess (Just a story, I guess)

I met a boy, he was my type
I'm so annoyed, you wasted my time
Almost fucked with my life
Still got the girl, but acts like he's mine
I'm over boys that waste my time
