

I'll Break My Heart Again

Mimi Webb

You only know what you lost when you try and replace it
Trying to find a quick fix 'cause you can't take the pain in
And every time I close my eyes to kiss him
Every time I feel his hands on my skin

I, I wish it was you
Being with somebody helps
But if I'm honest with myself

I'll break my heart again
I'll tell him it's the end
If you change your mind and take me back
For just one day of what we had
I'll break my heart again

He shows me how he feels
But I just can't feel the same
'Cause all he's ever been is a body to fill the spaces
Can't tell him he's the wrong man at the right time
Better that I keep my feelings inside

I, I wish it was you
Being with somebody helps
But if I'm honest with myself

I'll break my heart again
I'll tell him it's the end
If you change your mind and take me back
For just one day of what we had
I'll break my heart again
Ooh, oh, ooh, oh

Being with somebody helps
But if I'm honest with myself

I'll break my heart again
I'll tell him it's the end
If you change your mind and take me back
For just one day of what we had
