

My Go

Mimi Webb

Here I come, here I go
Time to switch the dial
You been lettin' me down, baby, now it's my go
You can call me psycho
'Cause I don't take the high road
You been lettin' me down, baby, now it's my go

Hey, it's too late
I'ma call every girl that you know
Tell 'em I faked sounds I made when I had my eyes closed
Such a shame, I thought you had potential
Now watch me flip the tables

Tried to wine and dine
Baby boy, I'm fine
I'ma do this my own way-ay-ay
Yeah

Here I come, here I go
Time to switch the dial
You been lettin' me down, baby, now it's my go
You can call me psycho
'Cause I don't take the high road
You been lettin' me down, baby, now it's my go

(It's my go, my go) Down, baby, now it's my go
(It's my go, my go) Down, baby, now it's my go

Watch, I bet this one goes crazy viral
Thank you, babe, for helping my financials
Say your thought, give my all
Would stay away but
I ain't got, got the the time for no time wasting

Tried to wine and dine
Baby boy, I'm fine
I'ma do this my own way-ay-ay (Way)
Yeah

Here I come, here I go
Time to switch the dial
You been lettin' me down, baby, now it's my go
You can call me psycho
'Cause I don't take the high road (Take the high road)
You been lettin' me down, baby, now it's my go

(It's my go, my go) Down, baby, now it's my go
(It's my go, my go) Down, baby, now it's my go
(It's my go, my go) Down, baby, now it's my go
You've been letting me down, baby, now it's my go
