

See You Soon

Mimi Webb

I come alive when you get close
Your arms are the place that I call home
And nobody else would ever hold my heart
'Cause yours is the only one I'll know

It's getting late, I'll miss my train
You know I really want to stay
Oh, we might be worlds apart
But we'll be okay, 'cause

I, I, I
I'll see you, see you soon
I'll see you, see you soon
Though it hurts to say goodbye
But I'll see you, see you soon
I'll see you, see you soon

Time always seems to disappear
And days pass like moments, when you're here
Reality always seems to interfere, but I'll always love you far or near

It's getting late, I'll miss my train
You know I really want to stay
Oh, we might be worlds apart
But we'll be okay, 'cause

I, I, I
I'll see you, see you soon
I'll see you, see you soon
Though it hurts to say goodbye
But I'll see you, see you soon
I'll see you, see you soon

Oooh

Hear my heart, hear it calling
Every night, every morning
Hear my heart, hear it calling, mmm (Ooh)

Hear my heart, hear it calling
Every night, every morning
Hear my heart, hear it calling, mmm

I, I, I
I'll see you, see you soon
I'll see you, see you soon
Though it hurts to say goodbye
But I'll see you, see you soon
I'll see you, see you soon

Ooh, ooh, no
