It's comin' on (It's comin' on, it's comin' on)
It's comin' on

Tell myself that I should run
But your lips still got me hooked
And the drinks don't make me numb, no, no, no more
'Cause the pain just feels so good (Mm)

And you're so on my mind
Middle of the night like, "Why? Why? Why?"
Oh, I guess I love the broken high every time I think about you (Ah-ah-ah)

I said that I'd forget
But I'm dancin' 'round the voices in my head
I'm addicted to those heartbreak side effects
And I feel it comin' on
It's comin' on and on and on
You're good, but I'm obsessed
Never washin' off your kisses from my neck
I'm addicted to those heartbreak side effects
And I feel it comin' on
It's comin' on and on and on

It's comin' on (It's comin' on, it's comin' on)
It's comin' on (It's comin' on, it's comin' on)
It's comin' on (It's comin' on, it's comin' on)
It's comin' on (It's comin' on, it's comin')

Tell myself that I should stay (Tell myself that I should stay)
That's a promise I can't keep (That's a promise I can't keep)
Uh-uh, need a fix of falling into a stranger's arms
And I want that on repeat (Ooh-ooh)

And it's so on my mind
Middle of the night like, "Why? Why? Why?" (Why?)

I said that I'd forget
But I'm dancin' round the voices in my head
I'm addicted to those heartbreak side effects
And I feel it comin' on
It's comin' on and on and on
You're good, but I'm obsessed
Never washin' off your kisses from my neck
I'm addicted to those heartbreak side effects
And I feel it comin' on
It's comin' on and on and on

It's comin' on (It's comin' on, it's comin' on)
It's comin' on (It's comin' on, it's comin' on)
It's comin' on (It's comin' on, it's comin' on)
It's comin' on (It's comin' on, it's comin' on)
