

Morirò Per Te

Mina

I feel like walking
Without my sorrows
I feel like walking down the streets in my new world
Like a daring fellow
I feel like searching
My life to mellow
But in the moon I see your smile
It makes me feel as if I died
It makes me lose my head
Because I still love you

I feel like dancing
With every soldier
I feel like catching stars with all the boys that fill
Every night's corner
I feel like struggling
With all my powers
But in the moon I see your smile
It makes me feel as if I died
It makes me lose my head because
I still love you
But I don't need your horse to ride
No, I don't want my past to cry
But there's a voice that yells inside
I still love you

Morirò per te
Remember how you filled
My days
Morirò per te
Morirò, Morirò, Morirò, Morirò
Morirò, Morirò, Morirò, Morirò
Morirò per te
So we'll show the night tonight
Morirò per te
Morirò, Morirò, Morirò, Morirò
Morirò, Morirò, Morirò, Morirò
Morirò per te

The moon is going down and
Sun's about to shine
Oh, baby where were you
My heart is burning down
Now everything I do
Now everything I do, oh, oh
It looks like I do it wrong

I feel like singing, a funny jingle

I feel like dreaming but the wind that clears the day
Will lose my tangles
I feel like burning
My sad back pages
It makes me feel as if I died
It makes me lose my head because
I still love you

But I don't need your horse to ride
I still love you

Morirò per te
My days
Morirò, Morirò, Morirò, Morirò
Morirò per te

Till sea will shine at night
Tonight
Morirò per te
Morirò, Morirò, Morirò, Morirò
Morirò, Morirò, Morirò, Morirò
Morirò per te

The moon is going round and
Sun's about to shine
Oh, baby where were you

My heart is burning down
Now everything I do

The moon is going round and
Sun's about to shine
Oh, baby where were you

My heart is burning down
Now everything I do
