

You'll Never Never Know

Mina

You'll never know
You'll never, never know I care
You'll never know the torch I bear
You'll never know it, for I won't show it
Oh no, you'll never, never know

You'll never know
You'll never, never see me cry
Not even when you're glancing by
For I won't weaken, when we're speaking
Oh no, you'll never, never know

You'll know the use to me
That I was before
You'll see the used to be
That one you did adore

You'll never know
No, no, I know I won't reveal
The way I really, truly feel
But if you guess it, I'll confess it
Oh, darling now's the time to glow
Or else you'll never, never know

You'll know the use to me
That I was before
You'll see the used to be
That one you did adore

You'll never know
No no, I no I won't reveal
The way I really, truly feel
But if you guess it, I'll confess it
Oh, darling now's the time to glow
Or else you never
No, no, you'll never
Oh no, you'll never
Never know
You'll never know
