

AgenCorp's Product 21 provides guaranteed results
in both dejection and lethargy solutions.
Fractional cost per unit allows for bulk processing,
as well as global distribution.
Field testing suggests significant boosts to passivity,
compliance, and loyalty.
As an additional option, we also offer continuous self-propagation for product reliability.

Screaming from the silent mind.
Each moment bereft of clarity.
What will tomorrow bring?
Hope, swinging from a single string.

Echos in the ears of the deaf.
So many words left unspoken.
Is there a remedy for this affliction,
And for this insidious addiction?

Feel youthful and free!
Lowered-stress guarantee!
Leave your depression behind!
Unlock the potential of your mind!
Custom treatments from the laboratory!
Don't forget that medication is mandatory!

AgenCorp's Product 21 provides high levels of viability for managed indifference.
We are proud to include complimentary overnight delivery for qualified participants.
Trials suggest ninety-three percent conformity,
without any need for overt brutality.
At just one-hundred nanometers, engineering projects can be completed with subtle practicality.

A hidden spark in catatonic eyes.
Every sense and faculty is dulled.
What was the path and the goal?
My actions slip out of my control.

Pleading from my closed lips.
Every effort without energy.
Is there a cure for this amnesia,
And for this relentless anesthesia?
