

Face It

mind.in.a.box

Face it!
Face it!

Concealed,
underground.
Losing the lead,
coming around.

Exhausted,
all worn out.
Losing control,
beyond any doubt.

You had the faith,
you had the strength.
But you have to admit,
you fucked it up.

Face it!

If you truly want to cope with something,
try to change it.

Face it!

If you truly want to cope with something,
try to change it.

Face it!

Am I the one who is leaving?
Am I the one who is still holding on?
Am I the one who is cheating?
Am I the one who was so dead wrong?

Face it!
Face it!

You had the faith,
you had the strength.
But you have to admit,
you fucked it up.

Face it!

You had the faith,
you had the strength.
But you have to admit,
you fucked it up.

Face it!
