It is very important that you answer me honestly.
Will you share our discussion with anyone?
This is completely confidential. That is our policy.
I feel so isolated. I just need to talk to someone.

Some symbols can have perilous meanings.
When did you start to have these feelings?
It was when new blood burned the old city.
So few cared, and so many drifted without pity.

Don't subscribe to baseless conspiracies.
Have confidence in the Agency.
They are here to protect you.
And they do so: graciously.

Your belief reveals paranoia.
We have medications that treat doubt.
You must believe in the System.
And what it will bring about.

It is always normal to have some level of anxiety.
How did you feel about the reset of society?
I trusted that what we had built could never disappear.
But soon the truth and the lies became more clear.

Don't subscribe to baseless conspiracies.
Have confidence in the Agency.
They are here to protect you.
And they do so: graciously.

Your belief reveals paranoia.
We have medications that treat doubt.
You must believe in the System.

There was once a time of substance, strength, and bravery!
Before this modern age of fear, confusion, and inanity!

Some thoughts can lead to dangerous decisions.
When did you start to have these visions?
It was when I knew that I was still sane.
In this world, where clouds of madness reign.

Refusing your supplements can lead to depression.
How long has it been since you've had your injection?
I tend to avoid any suspicious inoculations.
And now I see that our session has exceeded its duration.

You suffer from defiant maladjustment.

I insist that you comply immediately.
We can save you from your sickness.
But only if you trust us faithfully.

Your visions are delusional.
You are so filled with hate.
I have written you a prescription.
It will help you to integrate.
