Timelessness

mind.in.a.box

It shows you how to move along,
and helps you find your own stride.
Where time is of no consequence,
it starts to push your worries aside.

It slowly affords its own song,
crawling up all the way inside.
Your mind is immersed in music,
finally not afraid to confide.

You (you) feel a deep sense of sacredness.
You fall asleep.
You feel timelessness.
Timelessness.
You feel a deep sense of sacredness.
You fall asleep.
You feel timelessness.

Tiny stars are circling all around.
Your mind is full of sound.
Everything else will discontinue.
Let the music submerge you.

You know the truth and it makes you feel relieved,
in the past you never knew what you really believed.
Instead of air you are breathing melody.
The Friend will guide you through this anomaly.
